

Third graders have recently sent in artwork and a short essay to the Amvets Poster contest with a Fourth of July theme. We thank Mrs. Skaggs for completing the posters in art class with the students.

One of the students' language arts activities that improves fluency and reading with expression is readers' theater.

COSI on Wheels came to our school on March 5th.
We all enjoyed learning more about animals in the wild.

